Everton (16 points), meanwhile, remain 17th, now just one point above Luton Town, who have a game in hand of their own. It was absolutely all Manchester City for much of the first half, with Everton having just one shot a Beto header which went wide of the 18-yard box; altogether in the 1st minute prior to the opening goal. Jordan Pickford made a double save to keep the game scoreless in the 14th minute as Matheus Nunes and Julian Alvarez had plenty of the goal to aim at, but each hit their shot right at the Everton keeper. Pickford made four saves in the opening half-hour, keeping the Toffees level until they could fashion their first real scoring chance of the game. It came in the 29th minute, as Rodri was dispossessed on the edge of his own penalty area, facing his own goal. Dwight McNeil dribbled toward the end line and crossed to the top of the six, where Jack Harrison arrived and applied the finish against his former club. Everton led at halftime, but not for much longer after the restart. Phil Foden was left all by his lonesome 25 yards from goal, found by Berna
