What is an NSF Program?

An NSF program is a program offered by the National Science Foundation for individuals who have completed a postgraduate degree in the fall, with the exception of candidates who have completed a joint bachelor's-master's program and have not undertaken any additional studies outside of the program or candidates who have had a break of at least two consecutive years before applying.

When and Where Does it Take Place?

The NSF program is available for eligible individuals who have completed their postgraduate degree. There are various programs available, and they take place at different times throughout the year and in different locations. It is essential to check the NSF website for specific program details and application deadlines.
