By succeeding in their individual lives,

power couples are also able to thrive in their partnership.

This is a couple who is delineated not by the other person but has a solid and strong ability to be an individual, and you know them on their own merits versus the merits of the partner, shares Dr. Paredes.

You respond to and prioritize each other's needs.

Not only can powerful couples communicate about what they want, but they're willing to listen and prioritize each other's desires and needs, too. Not only do you talk about what you want and need from each other, but you also follow through and actually do it.
